Jefferson vs. Hamilton Social Media Project

Think about the debate that developed between Thomas Jefferson and Alexander Hamilton during the 1790s. What would the debate have looked like if these men lived with modern social media? Choose a social media app and create a profile and five or more posts from each gentleman. Your profiles and posts need to be historically accurate in both date and content but can use modern slang. You are welcome to create your profiles and posts digitally or on plain white paper.

Your project will be scored based on the following criteria, worth 5 points each:

____ Chosen social media app is clear and accurately represented

____ Jefferson's picture is an accurate but casual representation of him

____ Jefferson's profile is historically accurate

____ Jefferson's profile is creative and engaging

____ 5 or more of Jefferson's posts are specific to his debate with Hamilton

____ Hamilton's picture is an accurate but casual representation of him

____ Hamilton's profile is historically accurate

____ Hamilton's profile is creative and engaging

____ 5 or more of Hamilton's posts are specific to his debate with Jefferson

____ Time and effort is apparent

____ Convention choices do not detract from overall meaning

____ Layout mirrors chosen social media app, work is legible, and use of space makes sense
